

PROCLAMATION

BY THE

Governor of the State of Texas

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

I am vetoing and filing with the Secretary of State House Bill No. 417. In addition to providing a method of service of citation after the appointment of a temporary administrator, this bill provides that "all sales of property heretofore made by administrators whose appointment originated under the provisions of this Chapter for appointment of temporary administrators are hereby in all things validated." In my opinion this validation is too broad and will cover too many unforeseen cases, and for this reason it is vetoed.

House Bill No. 417 reached the Governor's Office less than ten days prior to the adjournment of the Regular Session of the Fifty-second Legislature. In accordance with the Constitution, the bill, together with this proclamation containing my objections to the bill, is being filed with the Secretary of State.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF I have hereunto signed my name officially and caused the Seal of State to be affixed hereto at Austin, this the 28th day of June, A. D., 1951.

Alan Shivers
GOVERNOR OF TEXAS
